Dr. Arthur B. Darling
[REDACTED]

Dear Dr. Darling:

I have purposely delayed answering your letter of 20 January 1954 pending the arrival of [REDACTED] who has now reported for duty. Since he has not had an opportunity to visit his home in Indiana for the past two years, he has been granted leave to do this and, therefore, in all probability he will not actually begin his work until some time after 12 March.

If you will kindly advise me when you plan to come through Washington on your trip to Charleston, I shall endeavor to have him here at that time.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Dear [REDACTED]

Your letter of January 15 has come today. I shall be pleased to help [REDACTED] when he has arrived and had chance to get settled. Perhaps it would be convenient to arrange tentatively for some time after March 12. I am planning a trip through Washington to Charleston, South Carolina during the spring vacation. I look forward to seeing you on my next visit in Washington. With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,
